Balanced Design.
Use three different areas for your drawings. Remember – they should be of different sizes! You can use the areas below vertically or horizontally.