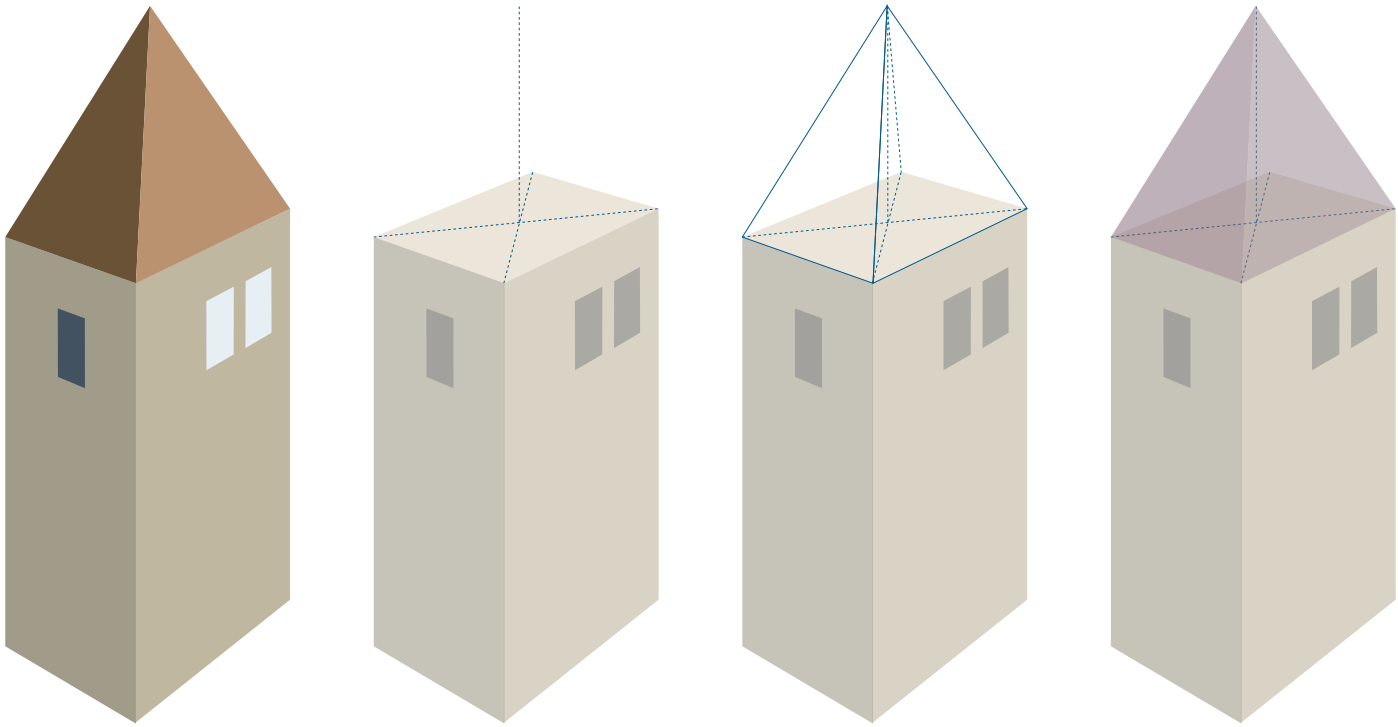
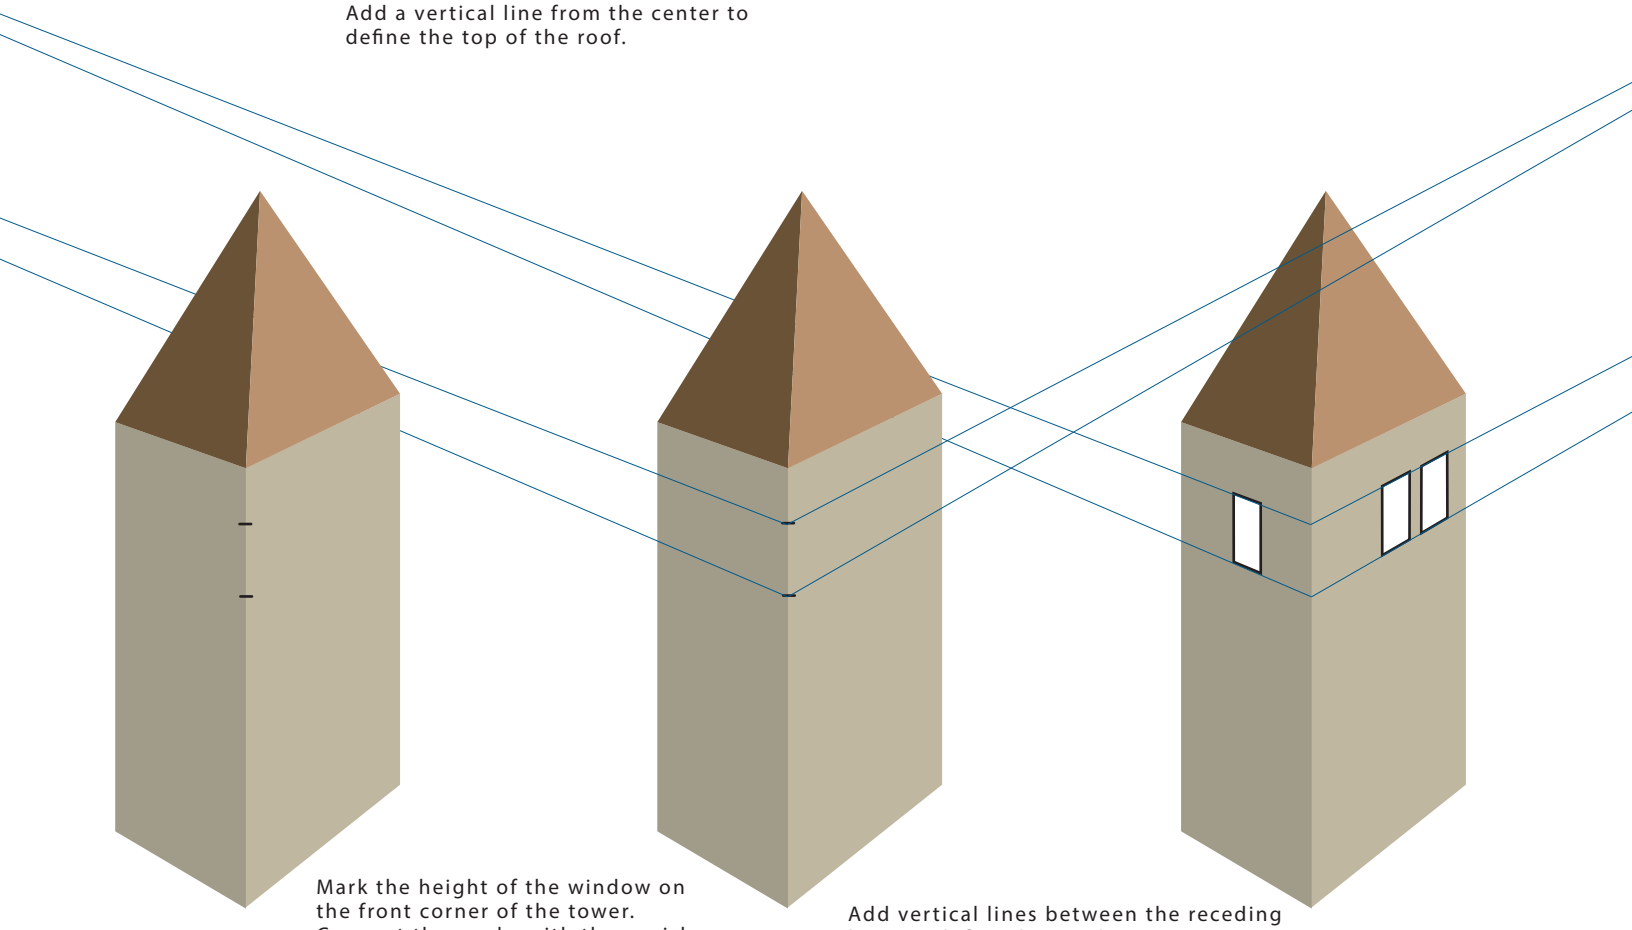
TOWER



Find the center by drawing 2 diagonal lines.
Add a vertical line from the center to define the top of the roof.

Connect the corners of the tower with the top point.



Mark the height of the window on the front corner of the tower.
Connect the marks with the vanishing points.

Add vertical lines between the receding lines to define the windows.